Open Call for Two Special Issues in Leadership: K-12 & Post-secondary and/or Other Dynamic Workplaces

- (A) K-12 Contexts.
Special Issue Editor: Professor Shirley Steinberg
- (B) Post-secondary/Dynamic Workplaces
Special Issue Editor: Professor Shelleyann Scott

Faculty members and graduate students from the Leadership, Policy & Governance specialization in the Werklund School of Education, University of Calgary, invite submissions of a variety of original papers for two Special Issues of The Journal of Educational Thought (JET), publication dates anticipated for early 2022. We welcome submissions to mentor graduate students' scholarship, and facilitate the exchange and dissemination of the latest research, critical thought, and innovation in the areas of (Issue A) Leadership in K-12 Contexts; or (Issue B) Leadership in Post-Secondary and/or Dynamic Workplaces. Both issues will be peer-reviewed.

Submissions for the sections below are welcome:

- Research-based journal article: 5,000–8,000 words (excluding references).
We accept extended versions of papers previously presented but not published.
 - Editorial/commentary article (1-2 authors): 1,500–2000 words
 - Reviews (books, innovative programs), and/or ongoing research (1-2 authors): 2,000–2,500 words
- Note: Authorship drawn from a student's research must reflect the student's name as first in authorship with faculty member(s)/supervisor second.

Deadline:

The deadline for a 300-word abstract with references is April 15, 2021 11:59 PM, authors will be contacted by May 1, 2021 by Editors of Special Issue A or B. At that point, selected submissions will be invited to submit their completed article by November 1, 2021.

Abstract guidelines:

Authors should only submit abstracts that have been carefully proofread. You must indicate your preference for Issue A (K-12 contexts) or Issue B (PS or other contexts). Before submission ensure that your abstract follows APA 7 protocol, is done in Times New Romans 12 font size and double spaced (single space and 10 font size for quotations and notes). Figures, tables, and photos must be inserted into the manuscript. Avoid using screenshots for figures and tables. Include a 150-word short biography for each author. Include five keywords that describe the main idea discussed. Please write the keywords below the abstract. Do not include footnotes and endnotes unless as necessary brief explanatory notes. At the beginning of the manuscript include the title, followed by author(s) names and affiliation, an abstract, keywords, the text, reference list, and e-mail address for correspondence.
